Moslems Conscripted and Are Chained Together When Brought In for Service.

By the Associated Press.

Constantinople, May 20 (delayed) The new Thracian Government at Adrianople has dismissed all the old officials and serious trouble is believed to be brewing. Former Sub-Gov. Erdjument Ekran Bey, who has arrived in Constantinople, said to-day that Bulgarians are crossing into Thrace in large numbers and joining the Turks, who are preparing to resist the Greeks.

Bulgarians, according to Ekran Bey, will form the backbone of the forces opposing the Greeks, but he declared that Col. Jafar Tayar, who was the Turkish mmandant at Adrianeple, has 20,000 Turkish soldiers available. Ekran Bey asserted that the French are permitting the Bulgarians to enter Turkey at will, but as he is considered in allied circles nere to be decidedly anti-French, it is believed his statement should be taken with reserve.
